Membership Dues

There is a membership application in the newsletter. Remember your dues are what keep the club running.

Prez—Sez - Judy Tillapaugh, RD

Peace, Joy, and goodwill towards others are the main reasons why we look forward to the Christmas holiday season. Once a year our life lights up as we give and receive gifts from friends, family members, neighbors, co-workers, and anonymous special people. What are the most meaningful gifts you have received? What types of gifts do you enjoy giving? What touches your heart and claims the mind? Take just 5 to 10 minutes and write down your answers.

For holiday stress care, take 3-5 minute “time outs” daily to re-read and reflect what you wrote down.

At our November FWTC membership meeting we read about Tom Landis’s list of 22 area running events he recommended we consider for the 2004 FWTC Points Races. His list developed from the input he has received the past year from you. As coordinator of the Points Race Series, he stated his willingness to increase the number of total events from 12 to 15, with 3 events having 2 score-able races. He asked us to select our 15 preferences, keeping in mind the need to have safe, well-run events, with reasonable costs where the results would be completed in a timely fashion. It was not easy to make just 15 selections! All of them have proved to be beneficial to runners and walkers. Most all of them also have raised money for great causes.

Tammy Behrens asked, “What is the purpose of the FWTC Points Race Series? It is not just about the fastest runners. It is not just about participation. It offers many opportunities for us to socialize with each other. We all agreed it is these plus more. It has something to offer everyone, no matter what their personal pace is. Hopefully the series will help you gain personal health and fitness goals.

We also hope that the series raises awareness that our club is run by volunteers. Devoted people give the gift of volunteering almost every day of the year! Thanks much!!

New this year, you will get bonus points as you help at any of the 15 events! Another change, there is no race completion minimum. For more information look for the list of the 15 2004 events and points rules printed in this newsletter.

Thank you Tom Landis for being our FWTC Points Series Coordinator! We appreciate you!

The awards for the 2003 FWTC Points Series will be given out at our FWTC Annual Banquet, which is scheduled to be Sunday, February 15, 2004 at IPFW Walb Student Union Ballroom, starting at 5 pm. Amy and Andy Begley will be guest speakers! Hope you can come!

Healthy Holidays!

1. The meeting was called to order by President Judy Tillapaugh.
2. J.P. Jones offered a prayer.
3. The meeting minutes were read, revised and approved.
4. Tim and Rose met with Chuck Zumbrun and Anne Duff to discuss how the Inside Track newsletter is written and produced. Chuck and Anne have volunteered to take over as editors of the newsletter. Tim will continue to help on an ongoing basis. The next deadline for the newsletter is Monday.
5. Don passed out race calendars. The Pumpkin Run is cancelled and the Callithumpian Canter at 2PM on October 26th at Belmont High School will replace it as a FWTC points race. The Turkey Trot 5k will be held Nov. 15th at 11AM at Fox Island Park. This is also a FWTC points race. Don read the treasurer's report. The current balance is $29,344.90 and is up due to money from pre-registration to the Parlor City Trot. Current membership is 481-1year, 168-2year, and 50-3year. Don revised the budget to be closer to actual spending. The report was approved.
6. Tom is still seeking input into the points series rules for next year. Please send suggestions and comments to Tom. Don will try to work up a flow chart to compare points races to determine race profits, participation, etc. This information will be helpful when determining which races should be points races next year.
7. Bill Harris asked for input regarding the updated bylaws. The board moved to remove the words "long-distance" from Article I- #2 (Purpose). The change was approved. The board moved to change the word "annually" to "biannually" in Article III - Section I. The change was approved. The board moved to add a savings clause that stated the RRC laws will supercede any FWTC bylaws which differ. The board approved the clause. The updated FWTC Bylaws were approved with the above stated changes and additions.
8. Rick Hilker is race director for the Dupont 5k for the third year. There are 120 runners pre-registered. He has enough race volunteers. The fun run will be run first. Marge will display the FWTC board at the race.
9. Mac McAvoy will need help with the Parlor City Trot. There are 40 runners pre-registered at this time.
10. The track club still needs a web master to update the FWTC web site. Anyone interested in this position should talk to Judy.
11. Mike Fruchey (IPFW cross-country coach) talked to the board about holding the High School Semi-state Meet this year at IPFW. New Haven is the host school and will need volunteer help. Mike hopes the FWTC will manage 3 race clocks for the event and help with the finish line. The meet is October 25th. The SAC meet is at IPFW on October 9th and this will be a time to test the new course. Mike also thanked the FWTC for their financial support of his cross-country team which helped allow him to give 10 girls and 10 boys scholarships this year.
12. Sara K., Judy, and Bill Crane are organizing the FWTC Banquet to be held Feb. 15th at IPFW. Amy and Andy Begley will be the guest speakers. An ad will go in the next Inside Track.
13. Don noted that the 500 mini applications are out and you can pay a lower fee if you register before Jan. 15th.
14. Mitch Harper stated the Zoom thru Zulu will be October 12th. There will be home-made snacks and massages available. The Huff course is in pretty good shape but some logs do need to be removed. There is still high water in some areas and the start location may need to be changed and a shuttle service may be required. There may be chip timing this year.
15. Anyone interested in helping with the proposed development of the Railroad into a greenway from the YMCA location through the industrial park and onward should contact Roger Goodlind at 484-3385. The volunteer would be working with the DNR and property owners along the railroad.

6. Tom Landis announced that there are still several runners in the point's series who need to volunteer for a race. There are many runners who will not meet the 6 race requirement. Don passed out a flow chart that shows which races have supported the track club in the past. Some club members felt there were too any 5k races this year and would like to see more 10k's next year. Tom will make up a questionnaire-flyer to pass out at upcoming races to obtain more feed-back.

16. The Callithumpian 5k is scheduled at Belmont on Sun., Oct. 26th at 2:00PM.
17. The board approved a request from Don for $72.05 to fix a broken handle on his van. A volunteer accidentally broke it at a race while removing equipment.
18. The Rat Race committee will begin meeting next month at the YMCA on the 3rd Wed. of every month. All interested volunteers are welcome. Contact Steve Hilker.
19. There will be a volunteer sheet with the Huff application this year. There will be NO race day registration. There will be a pre-race packet pick-up before Christmas for Ft. Wayne residents. Bread and cookies will be needed for the race and can be baked ahead and frozen. Parking volunteers will be needed. Contact Mitch Harper if interested.
20. Mac McAvoy would like to write a proposal for race directors which would allow the director to put some of the race profits back into the race account to be used for the race the following year. The club would still receive the normal race profits. This money would allow for more advertising in hopes to increase race participation. Should the FWTC spend more money on promoting local races to attract more runners?

Choose Peace

Decorating, cooking, shopping, cleaning, entertaining, making calls, writing cards, and giving donations are some of the activities during the holiday season. Many of us make the commitment to celebrate the birth of Christ and/or recognize the value of sharing hope, faith, peace, and love. In our own special methods we give gifts to family members, friends, co-workers, neighbors, and people less fortunate. Cheers to you for all you plan to do!

All the holiday multi-tasking can increase our stressors! They likely get connected to conflicts with family members, friends, or co-workers. Together the multi-tasking and conflicts can easily crush the ability to keep peaceful thoughts, feelings, words, and actions. Bah- hum- bug!! Instead of being filled with inner joy, peace, and love we get tempted to indulge in extra eating, drinking, worrying, arguing, and/or isolation.

What to do? Keep the commitment to choose peaceful thoughts and behaviors. No one makes us angry or forces us to eat extra pieces of fudge. We choose our responses.

Bill Utesch, Ph.D, LMFT, and LMHC, Marriage and Family Therapist at The Family Care Center and Director of the IPFW Joanne B. Lantz Counselor Education Program, recently provided a workshop at IPFW titled "Care For Wounded Relationships." He emphasized how stressors and conflicts can be used as opportunities instead harming our health. We can choose to think, speak, listen, and act so we become closer to friends, family members, and co-workers.

He pointed out that conflicts are evidence that yes we are all different. Everyone is a very special unique individual. To keep harmony during the holidays, first focus on lighting up your own inner peace and taking care of some stressors. Stressors become less when we plan for regular exercise, select nutritious foods, focus on conversations instead of food at parties, give to the needy, go easy on alcohol, reduce the "to do list", relax to favorite music, call friends, or/and do journal writing. We can be Santa Claus instead of Scrooge!

Choose Peace:

P- Plan to be aware of stressors and conflicts

E- Elect to shape safe situations

A- Accept and appreciate differences between people

C- Celebrate the reasons for the season and share hope, faith, peace, and love

E- Exercise opportunities to "take care" of yourself plus listen more to resolve conflicts, if conflicts become chronic do ask for guidance from a mental health professional.

Rocky Mountain High

by Barb Scrogam

In Southwestern Colorado, the Saturday after the September holiday might be considered by many as the real Labor Day, for that's when Spandexed people labor on foot -- a vertical mile up the mountain that divides Ouray and Telluride. It's the Imogene Pass Run, a run, not a race, 17.1 miles. This course takes runners up to the 13,120 Imogene Summit, a place where oxygen is in scarce supply and surviving rather than winning is the goal.

On September 6, 2003, I ventured to Colorado to participate in the run for the second time. Starting in Ouray at 7:30 a.m., I, with 1350 other runners, began my ascent over the Mountain Pass to Telluride. Although the distance is only 17.1 miles, the terrain with rocks, shale, boulders, rivers of mud, and steep ascents and descents make the Imogene Pass Run a true test of survival. All runners are required to have hats, jackets, and gloves. Why? Because it's usually rainy, most of the time it's hailing with an occasional snowstorm, and it's always windy. Still, in its history, the challenging weather during the Imogene Pass Run has never dissuaded runners. Before we began, I remembered what the race director had told us: "The Imogene Pass Run is a mountain run in every sense of the word and The Mountains Don't Care." He also advised us to think, "Incessant forward motion," and to remember, "It is up to you to get yourself by your own two feet from Ouray to Telluride."

The gun sounded. At first, I ran uphill, following the crowd. As I climbed higher and higher, I began to feel my heart starting to pound. I inhaled deeply, trying to breathe in sufficient oxygen. The higher I went, the harder my heart pounded. I, and other "runners," started hiking, not running. Some stopped to take pictures of the breath-taking mountains. Most, myself included, stopped every once in awhile just to catch a breath.

Fortunately, volunteers along the way provided many well-stocked aid stations, which helped me to reach the summit within the required time limit. I was so happy the climb was over, but then I realized more danger lay ahead--a muddy, rocky descent into Telluride, where one false step could cause me to trip, fall, and perhaps injure myself. Going down was scary with the wet mud, shale, boulders, and rocks. The rocks intimidated me, and

I really took it easy going down. I heard thunder three miles out and prayed the rain would hold out. It did, and I was so thankful! I told myself, "Go slow. Don't worry about your time. Just finish safely in one piece." I did it! My goals were to finish in the allowed time, seven hours, and not to get injured. I accomplished both.

Being from Indiana, and not having much experience running hills, Imogene was quite challenging! However, the scenery is beautiful, and it's unlike any run I've ever done. If you want a unique, historic, challenging, scenic, and unforgettable run, you might want to consider running the Imogene Pass Run. I look forward to running it again in the future.

Northrop Cross Country Team Claims Second at State

By Barrie Peterson

In 38 years of coaching track and cross country, I cannot remember a more enjoyable two years of distance success than the last two years with the young men with whom I have been blessed to coach at Northrop High School. With our tradition of excellence, the expectations are always high, but the results are not always as pleasing. To finish third in 2002 and then second in 2003 was an incredible feat. Although we were somewhat disappointed in our third place finish last year, the feeling of exhilaration and excitement with this year's state meet finish was something that will be forever engraved on my heart! This year's team helped us to accomplish several outstanding invitational performances, the SAC championship for the 15th year in a row, the Sectional title for the 7th straight year, the Regional championship for the 11th time in the last 12 years, the Semi-State title for the 2nd year in a row, and advancement to state for the 9th consecutive year.

I would like to publicly thank my assistant coach DeWayne Mendez for his invaluable contribution to the success of this year's team. I also want to thank the parents, relatives, friends, administrators, and faculty behind this year's team for their support and help throughout the year. All of you were an integral part of our accomplishments.

Points Rules For 2004

1. FWTC members must pay dues by March 1st to be awarded points for the current year.
2. Participants may earn 100 volunteer points for each race they work, with a maximum of 200 points counting towards their total points. Volunteer points are not mandatory. Points may be earned for both volunteering and running a race. There is no race completion minimum.
3. Race directors will earn 100 points toward the series and there is no maximum points for race directors.
4. Age group placement:
 - a. Age group placement is determined by age as of January 1st.
 - b. Age groups: under 19, 20-29, 30-34, 35-39, 40-44, 45-49, 50-54, 55-59, 60-69, 70&over
 - c. Each race points are awarded based on your age as of Jan. 1st. Example: if you turn 45 after Jan. 1st, your place at the race will reflect your current age status, but your points will be recalculated into the 40-44 age division with other FWTC members the same age.
 - d. If the race has more age groups than the above, participants receive the points as earned in that race. It is possible for more than one participant to earn the same number of points in the "points series" age group. Example: if a race has a 60-64 & 65-69 age group, a first place winner in each age group would receive 100 points.
 - e. Points are given based on how participants finish compared to other FWTC members.

1 st Place: 100 points	7 th Place: 35 points
2 nd Place: 85 points	8 th Place: 25 points
3 rd Place: 75 points	9 th Place: 15 points
4 th Place: 65 points	10 th Place: 10 points
5 th Place: 55 points	Other finishers: 5 points
6 th Place: 45 points
5. The top male and female award winners will be scored by a separate system based on the top 10 FWTC finishers in the races regardless of age group.
